

agenda

December 9th, 2016
1:00 – 3:30 p.m.

Glenbow Museum
Morris Schumiatcher
3rd floor

Fine Arts Advisory Council (FAAC) 2015/16

1:00-1:30 Circle Opening /Prayer and Introductions

Led by Elder Sheldon First Rider

“The Circle is a powerful teacher” Elder Francis Alexis

- Share a time you felt connected to land, people or animals

1:30 – 2:30 Arts Education - Alberta Ed Curriculum Development/Indigenous Education Strategy - Looking with an Indigenous Lens

Elder Sheldon First Rider and Indigenous Museum Educator Blaire Russell

Concept Development with Glenbow Indigenous Museum Educators (30 mins with each educator)

Group 1

- Ancestors, Time and place
- Language, Cultural Identity and Voice

Group 2

- Relationships
- Experiences and Worldviews

Language and practices for consideration/disruption

- Kakoisin “to be wisely aware”
- “Energy out of nowhere” – children
- No word for art or artists
- Aesthetics of ‘everyday life’

2:40 – 3:00 (In your group) Using the concept that you explored together with your group what might Arts Education look like?

2:45 – 3:30 Starting Now - What might our practices in arts education look like? Large group

- Each group shares Indigenous concept perspective on Arts Education.

Conversations will be shared at Alberta Education’s Curriculum Development session in January 2017.

Guiding Voices a curriculum development tool for inclusion of First Nation, Metis and Inuit Perspectives Throughout Curriculum

<http://www.learnalberta.ca/content/fnmigv/index.html>

Walking Together First Nations, Metis and Inuit Perspectives in Curriculum
A resource for Teachers

www.LearnAlberta.ca

Next Meeting: February 22, 2016
Education Centre, Room T332

